

ERASMUS + 2016- 19

EUROPEAN WEEK, VIGO
30/04/2017 - 07/05/2017

ALPHABET GAME ROUND 0

A	Device used for measuring wind speed.
B	Sea north of Poland and Germany.
C	Polish astronomer born in the 16th century, famous for his heliocentric theory.
D	Animal said to be "man's best friend".
E	Previous name of the European Currency Unit now known as "Euro".
F	All the plants of an era or time.
G	Plant-eating insects with strong hind legs which they use for taking high, long jumps even without using their wings.
H	One of William Shakespeare's most famous characters, in love with Ophelia.
I	Mental capacity for logic, abstract thought, understanding and solving problems.
J	Largest planet in our solar system.
K	Former Formula 1 Polish driver.
L	He is a Polish professional footballer who plays as a striker for Bundesliga club Bayern Munich, and captains the Poland national team.
M	It was the official currency of Germany. It was replaced by the Euro in 1999.
N	They are our closest extinct human relative. There is some debate as to whether they were a distinct species of the ...
Ñ (containing)	Periodic warming of ocean water that develops in the central and east-central equatorial Pacific usually around Christmas time.
O	Last letter in the Greek alphabet equivalent to a capital "O".
P	Present king of Spain.
Q	A line of waiting people or vehicles.
R	Colour from both the Polish and the Spanish flags.
S	Capital of Galicia
T	Micro-blogging internet service that enables users to send and read short 140-character messages.
U	Imaginary animal usually represented as a horse with a horn on its forehead.
V	any of the Scandinavian seafaring pirates and traders who raided and settled in many parts of NW Europe in the 8th–11th centuries.
W	Surname of a Polish pope.
X	A percussion instrument consisting of a mounted row of wooden bars graduated in length, played with two small mallets.
Y	Internet search engine now outranked by Google.
Z	Capital of the republic of Croatia.