

DIARY

Day 1: Sunday the 5th

We left our school at 3:00 am to Porto airport by bus. We took the plane to Frankfurt at 6:00 am. We had breakfast at the airport and took the next plane to Berlin. We waited at the train station, while we ate a Mc Donalds and some Dunking. We met the Greeks and rushed to catch the train to Altentreptow where Manolo almost broke his knee in such a hurry. We arrived in the village at 20:00h and met up with the families to go to the house. We were very nervous because we didn't know how it was going to be. We went to bed because we were very tired and wanted to start the day with strength and energy.

Day 2: Monday the 6th

We had to get up very early because we had to be at school at 8 o'clock for presentations and we also played sports in the school hall. We took a train to Neubrandenburg for a city tour and some shopping. In the evening, some of us went to a Greek restaurant for dinner and the others went to a house all together.

Day 3: Tuesday the 7th

We got up to go to see a museum. It was all snowy and beautiful. Noa went on a snow slide. We ate sausages and had lots of snowball wars.

On the way to Neubrandenburg we visited Neustrelitz and the music school where Schliemann taught.

Then we went to a castle where we did some activities and dressed up in period costumes. We enjoyed it very much getting very nice memories.

Day 4: Wednesday the 8th

We spent the morning with the families. Some of us went to see "La Piedra", others went horse riding, others had brunch and others danced to the rhythm of the wakawaka. We started the afternoon with a bit of sport and then went to the bowling alley where we had pasta and pizza for dinner. Then we drove back home.

Day 5: Thursday the 9th

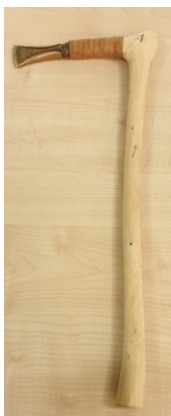

We visited an open-air archaeological museum and made pottery figures. Then we went to see a charming town called Schewerin with a beautiful castle. We took a lot of pictures, went shopping and finally went back to the village by bus.

Day 6: Friday the 10th

We started the morning with a big snow war, where Manuela lost the glass of her glasses. In the afternoon we went with the Greeks, Devin and Helen to Neubrandenburg to do the last shopping. We came back to the village and went for a drink in a café before the farewell party.

At the farewell party we danced some traditional dances from the different countries, as well as some modern music. We had some delicious food for dinner and had a great time.

Day 7: Saturday the 11th

We met early at the school to say goodbye to the families and catch a bus to Berlin. Before arriving, we had a guided tour of a concentration camp. We arrived in Berlin and said goodbye to the Greeks. We got back on the bus and were given a tour of the city. We made a stop to buy souvenirs before arriving at the hotel. We did the check-in, left the luggage and ate the Erasmus cake. We did a bit of sightseeing and shopping and came back.

Day 8: Sunday the 12th

We had breakfast at the hotel and picked up everything to leave. We said our goodbyes and left the hotel to catch a train to the airport. We caught the first flight to Frankfurt which was delayed by an hour and almost missed the next flight from Frankfurt to Berlin, but we ran and made it in time to catch it. We arrived in Porto and were told that we had lost our bags. We couldn't believe it! So we had to go to claim them. We had something to eat at the airport and took the bus back to Vigo where we were reunited with our families.
